

IBD Connect Inc. 2024 Financial Assistance Program Information and Instructions

A child's inflammatory bowel disease (IBD) diagnosis profoundly impacts families on emotional, physical, and financial levels. The array of expenses, including medical co-pays, out-of-pocket costs, dietary changes and supplementation, and potential lost wages, can be overwhelming. At IBD Connect Inc., our mission is to support, engage, and empower patients and families navigating the challenges of Crohn's Disease or Ulcerative Colitis. In the spirit of our commitment, we are pleased to announce the launch of our Financial Assistance Program for 2024. This program is specifically designed to aid IBD pediatric patient families experiencing financial difficulties due to their child's diagnosis. Our goal is to alleviate some of the burdens associated with this journey, offering tangible support to those actively involved or previously engaged in our support groups.

Application Process and Submission Instructions:

To apply for financial assistance, kindly download and complete all sections of the application form found on our website. The application should be submitted via email to lisafournier@ibdconnectinc.org. You may also choose to upload the application directly to our website. Each request will be thoughtfully reviewed by IBD Connect's Board of Directors. Applicants will receive a response via email within 30 days of submission. This response may include requests for additional information, supporting documentation, approval, or, if necessary, an explanation for denial. We appreciate your patience and understanding as we strive to assist all eligible applicants. If approved, you will receive a check via mail to help ease this segment of your journey.

Please direct any and all questions regarding the application to lisafournier@ibdconnectinc.org.
